

Lost Love

Bethany went in to surprise him, but Bo was all packed up and ready to leave. They both had news to tell but he insisted on going first...she never told him hers... and within two days she left too- as in out of town...

When Bethany's mother was involved in a car wreck, Bethany has to do the one thing she vowed she'd never do again... step foot in her old stomping ground. She doesn't hesitate to go and take care of her mother; she just doesn't want to see Bo again, ever!

Bo never forgot the way he hurt Bethany, he also never forgot the way she left without a backwards glance. He's hopeful that the five years that have passed will give him the chance to talk to Bethany, hoping that she'll do the 'forgive and forget' thing. If only she can tear herself away from that boyfriend of hers.

Join Bo and Bethany's journey as they learn they have to listen to each other... Sometimes you have to deal with the past before you can move forward, even if it's not where you thought you were headed.

KV Rider